JEWETT CITY
Some time during the latter part of the night Tuesday burglars entered the store of A. Zeger on Soule street. An inventory taken by Mr. Zeger Wednesday proves his loss to be at least $2,000.

The principal loot consisted of shoes and men's clothing, with all the high valued articles in silk. Entrance was effected by jumping over the rear cellar window.

Then their method of procedure was made plain by one bundle they left, it being too bulky to be dragged through the window. They took 130 pairs of high grade shoes—this fact was proven by the empty boxes scattered through the shoe department. These they tied up in new wooden bed blankets, 50 of which were missing. These bundles were carried down to Soule street, as were the later carcases, to a waiting machine of some sort, people going down Soule street shortly after sunrise Wednesday morning finding loose silk stockings, neckties and here and there a new shoe or two scattered along the trail.

The pile of men's suits all along the counters were taken clean, with dozens of boxes of women's silk hose and underwear.

The bundle which they left was principally made up of a new stock of woolen blankets just received.

Mr. Zeger, who lives over the store, was out to the American Legion hall and did not return until late. At midnight everything was quiet on Soule street, with the moonlight making everything as light as day. Inquiry as to where the night officer was does not fit the case in any particular.

It does not appear that it lies at all within the power of a single officer, in all the borough, to frustrate the intentions of any such carefully planned burglary. As in the case of the postoffice robbery, when Officer Driscoll was shot to death, they know where the officer is as well as he does himself.

Twenty-eight years ago, when Jewett City was a village as compared to now, there were three officers on duty on the streets all night—the late R. P. Franklin and the late P. B. Driscoll and Dennis Barnett, the Slater watchman. Now there is but one. Officer McDermott can not be in two places at once.

The second annual concert and ball given by Orville LaPlante post, No. 15, American Legion, in Finn opera house Tuesday evening was well attended. Collins' singing orchestra of Marlboro, Mass., gave a fine concert from 8 to 9 o'clock, also furnished the best of music for the dance program of 20 numbers.

Post Commander Dr. G. H. Jennings and Mrs. Jennings led the grand march, followed by Vice Commander Irving Thornton and Miss Rose St. John. The ballroom was decorated with bunting and flags, with a large American flag for a center getting. The American Legion orchestra was suspended over the platform.

Lunch was served by the members of the legion and the Woman's auxiliary. The officers and committees were: Commander, Dr. G. H. Jennings; vice commander, Irving Thornton; adjutant, Harold B. Herbert; treasurer, H. George Wilcox; historian, Gilbert Miner; financial secretary, John McElliot; chaplain, Rev. Clinton H. Andrews; executive committee, John W. Blake, chairman, John E. Wyatt, Edmond LaCroix, Napoleon Day.

Allyn, Mrs. Samuel Geer, Mrs. Walter Marshall, Mrs. S. R. Waters and Miss M. A. Burdick.

There are two fire drills used at the Riverside grammar school. The first is by using the regular exits. The second is using the special fire exits. This simulates the building of 512 pupils in 50 seconds.

Tuesday evening Warden Joseph H. McCarthy was the star actor in a carefully arranged comedy of errors. The warden attended the Legion ball and parked his car in the long string that extended well down Soule street.

As midnight approached, the warden who retires early, said "Good night," an made his way to his car. Upon reaching it he was much surprised to find a handsome fur carriage robe thrown over the engine hood. The warden is not the owner of the robe. He therefore notified Officer McDermott. They examined the number of the car, it was sure the warden's. Mr. McCarthy waited an hour for the possible return of the owner, then leaving instructions with the officer, he took the robe along home with him. Wednesday evening the warden's telephone rang, and a sweet female voice inquired if he had found a robe engine. "After the bath," he admitted that he had. Negotiations were put into immediate operation, with the result that the property was proven and now sweetly reposes in the owner's carriage house.

THIS WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE
Brings a Ray of Hope to Childless Women

Lowell, Mass.—"I had anemia from the time I was sixteen years old and was very irregular. If I did any house cleaning or washing I would faint and have to be put to bed, my husband thinking every minute was my last. After reading your text-book for women I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash, and have never felt better than I have the last two years. I can work, eat, sleep, and feel as strong as can be. Doctors told me I could never have children. I was too weak—but after taking Vegetable Compound it strengthened me so I gave birth to an eight pound boy. I was well all the time, did all my work up to the last day, and had a natural birth. Everybody who knew me was surprised, and when they tell me what made me strong I tell them Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Use this testimonial at any time."—Mrs. ELIZABETH SMART, 142 W. Sixth St., Lowell, Mass.

This experience of Mrs. Smart is surely a strong recommendation for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is only one of a great many similar cases.
